4  2  2

Location doesn't come much better than this. This quality Buderim home has it all and being priced at only $489,000, it is priced to sell. Where else can you get a home that is 3 years young, located in the sort after Mountain Creek school zone, and just down the road from the Headland Park golf course?

The home itself boasts 4 large bedrooms, all with built-in robes - the main with walk-in robe and ensuite. The kitchen features stone bench tops and plenty of room for storage. The open dining / living area looks out over the large covered outdoor area onto the very private back yard. There is also a media / rumpus room for that extra time-out!

This home is well located in a quiet court, where there is no through traffic. With a reserve less than 50 metres from
